From now until Oct. 8, California Pizza Kitchen \(CPK\) will be holding a special “Thank You Card Program” that awards diners a variety of secret prizes from cash to free frozen pizzas.

Each dinner or lunch party dining at a full service restaurant will be eligible to win; customers will receive an envelope at the end of their meal with a check containing a guaranteed prize.

The catch: envelopes need to remain sealed until the next trip to the California-based eatery; there, a manager will open the envelope revealing different prizes, ranging from 10 to 50 percent off a meal to $25,000 in cash.

Other prizes include:

$5,000 in cash

$2,500 in cash

$1,000 in cash

Four Seasons Hotel Los Angeles accommodations in Beverly Hills

$1,000 shopping spree in Neimen Marcus

Trip to Hawaii

Frozen pizza for a year, awarded to 52 guest and valid at all grocery stores

Tell us: What do you think of this program? Is it good, or a trick to get diners to return to the restaurant?
