COMINGS AND GOINGS

An Online Guide to Top Restaurants, Videos Included

By HILARY HOWARD

Travelsintaste.com, a new fine-dining Web site, offers restaurant information for cities in the United States, including New York, Los Angeles, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and Las Vegas. The site strives to provide unbiased information on luxury restaurants, including video tours of restaurant kitchens and cooking demonstrations and interviews with various chefs. There is also a “restaurant compare” function, in which users may pull up side-by-side information on up to four different restaurants in the same city.

Each city has a highlighted restaurant, which changes frequently. The site also allows users to map destinations (or download coordinates to a G.P.S. device), make reservations, see local weather, and e-mail restaurant information.
